Les Casquets. The first sign of the Channel Islands which the traveller from England sees. They consist of a group of rocks 1½ miles long, some ¾ of a mile many miles have been lost with all hands. In 1723 a lighthouse was erected 112 feet above sea level; it consists of three towers, from the uppermost of which the light flashes. The fog signal is sounded from the Eastern Tower.

With best wishes
from Connie & Mrs. Postlethwaite
We both hope you'll soon be better.
Your Mother told me she was coming on Friday
I'm sure you'll be pleased.

I hope you'll like
the choc.
We are having Exams
at school now so we are very busy.
Yrs. truly
Connie
